

Our Golden Anniversary

*On this special day, April 7th, 1966, George Slunder and June Jennings married a friend;
Exchanging vows of faith, hope, and love, with a life-long promise to always mend.
However, this romantic journey was conceived long before George and June were fully grown;
It began August 27th ('44) and October 2nd ('46) when they arrived in this world alone.
Lester & Helen, Henry & Geneva, all parents living their lives with joy, laughter, and tears;
Was it destiny for them to raise two country kids who would not meet for years?
Homegrown in Holland and Buffaloville, this trail was familiar and quite simple to navigate;
Makes one ponder how often George and June crossed paths in their search for a soul mate?
In January of '66, the Busy Bee brought them together, but would this eventually sting?
Or would a few hot dates, in a red and white '59 Chevy Impala, lead to a wedding ring?
George took a knee in the middle of Geneva's living room, but did he think this through?
After thoughts and consideration, of a world without June, what else could he do?
Today we celebrate the union of Mr. & Mrs. Slunder, a moment etched in their memory;
When 50 years ago, their two hearts became one in the presence of God, friends, and family.
Exciting, new adventures lie ahead as George & June make plans for the next chapter and verse;
A script they keep writing, in the face of life's challenges, and doing so for better or worse.
The key to happiness simply required a commitment to be a supportive husband and wife.
May George and June continue to put forth this effort and enjoy their most wonderful life!*
