

ARMY

From the winter at Valley Forge (1778) to the depth of Custer's ranks;
We fought the battle of San Juan Hill (1898); we're strong as Patton's tanks.
The invasion of Normandy (1944) was much more than a sandy beach;
Only Army core values could overcome a challenge so far out of reach.
The oldest military branch (1775), we've been there from the start;
We just keep rolling right along, a commitment straight from our heart.
Fort Benning Boot Camp is where this Warrior landed on the scene (2015);
Completing the "red, white, & blue" to become an ultimate, fighting machine.
From our "bag-drill" beginning to an FTX, it was Drill Sergeant we aimed to please;
Blood, sweat, and tear gas earned our right of passage and right to be "at ease".
We are the 82nd Airborne, "All Americans", and we strive to be all we can be;
Our goal is to protect the United States by taking care of the battle, buddy.
We're ARMY STRONG to complete any mission, we live the Soldier's Creed;
Guarding American freedom is our number one duty, even if we bleed.
Sergeant Benjamin Jackson, reporting for duty, ever faithful I will remain;
If I must die protecting my country, the sacrifice would never be in vain.
For America will always send her soldiers to help the world survive;
And the Army will continue to represent, for we were the first to arrive.
